ACCREDITATION COUNCIL

The Australian Nursing and Midwifery Accreditation Council (ACN 143 879 396) (ANMAC) is seeking expressions of interest from Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people with the skills and experience to join the ANMAC Board as a non-executive Director for a term of three years.

Applications close:

5:00 pm AEST on 7 July 2022

About ANMAC:

ANMAC is a public company limited by guarantee and is registered as a charity with the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission. ANMAC's purpose is set out in ANMAC's Constitution as: 'to advance the education, training and professional competence of nurses and midwives'. ANMAC achieves this purpose by performing the functions of the external accreditation entity for nurses and midwives under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law, and by assessing the qualifications and skills of internationally qualified nurses and midwives seeking to migrate to Australia. ANMAC has a three-year Strategic Plan 2021-24 with four strategic objectives: (1) respectful relationships; (2) lead, collaborate and innovate quality accreditation and assessment; (3) promote Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander health and cultural safety; and (4) business for the future. For further information on ANMAC, please visit ANMAC's website.

Eligibility to apply:

The non-executive Director position is open to Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander applicants only.

Applications for the non-executive Director position:

To apply for the non-executive Director position, please send your application via email to georgina.fargher@anmac.org.au. Your application must include:
