

Position Description For Non- Member Director with Expertise in Accreditation of Health Professional Education Programs

Dates and other info could also be displayed here

About the Australian Nursing and Midwifery Accreditation Council

The Australian Nursing and Midwifery Accreditation Council (ANMAC) is an independent not-for-profit company limited by guarantee. ANMAC is a charitable institution established to advance the education, training and professional competence of nurses and midwives. ANMAC does this by:

- (i) Acting as an independent accreditation entity (including acting as an external accreditation entity under the National Law)
- (ii) Upholding the objectives of the national registration and accreditation scheme outlined in section 3 of the Schedule to the National Law
- (iii) assessing the qualifications and skills of internationally qualified nurses and midwives who wish to migrate to Australia
- (iv) advising and making recommendations to government bodies, professional and other organisations, on matters relating to the education, training and competence of nurses, midwives and other health professionals as required
- (v) anything ancillary to the objects referred to in the above.¹

Governance

ANMAC operates under the framework of its Constitution and is governed by a Board of nine Directors.

Five Member Directors from the following organisations:

- Australian College of Midwives
- Australian College of Nursing
- Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation
- Congress of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Nurses and Midwives
- Council of Deans of Nursing and Midwifery (Australia & New Zealand)

Four Non-Member Directors consisting of:

- Two community Directors
- A Director who is an expert in accreditation of health professional's education programs
- A Director who is an expert in education in the vocational education and training sector

ANMAC's strategic objectives are:

- quality evidenced based standards, accreditation and assessment
- engaged stakeholders
- sound governance framework
- strong financial position

¹ Taken from the objects of the ANMAC Constitution.

Director Role

This position description is for a Non-Member Director with an understanding and expertise in the field of accreditation of health professional's education programs.

Competencies - role related

- Expert knowledge of the tertiary education and training system in Australia and the quality assurance requirements for education providers to operate in Australia
- Knowledge and understanding of the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law Act 2009 and the role and responsibilities of health professional's accreditation councils under the Act
- Experience in the policy and process of the accreditation of health professional's education programs
- Ability to provide expert knowledge to Board deliberations on issues that may arise in relation to the accreditation of health professions education programs

Competencies - General

- Knowledge of a Director's responsibilities - understanding the role as well as its legal, ethical, fiduciary and financial responsibilities
- Governance and strategic performance – ensuring effective Board governance and strategic performance processes are in place contributing to a high performing Board
- Finance audit and risk - comprehending the company's accounts and financial material presented to the Board, financial reporting requirements and some understanding of corporate finance and risk management
- Strategic expertise - reviewing the strategy through constructive questioning and suggestion, and contributing to the effective decision making of the Board
- Managing people and achieving change - experience in current management thinking on employment branding, engagement, strategic vision and stakeholder communication; experience in executive remuneration and compensation
- Health industry knowledge - experience in similar organisations or industries

Competencies – Personal

- Integrity - fulfilling a Director's duties and responsibilities, acting ethically, appropriate independence, putting the organisation's interests before personal interests
- Collaborative yet curious and courageous - a Director must be able to function as an effective team member but have the curiosity to ask questions and the courage to persist in robust discussion with management and fellow Board members where necessary
- Emotional intelligence, self-awareness and self-management - demonstrate empathy manifested through strong interpersonal skills, working well in a group, be tactful and able to communicate a cogent and candid viewpoint
- Commercial judgment and instinct - Demonstrate good business instinct and acumen and can assimilate and synthesise complex information
- An active contributor with genuine interest in the organisation and its business

Remuneration and benefits
Remuneration	As per the ANMAC Remuneration Policy
Travel and other expenses	As per the Expenses Policy
Other	As per the Board Charter

Further reading

- ANMAC Annual Report
- ANMAC Website